The inherent perfection of nature and the constant tendency to innovation are always an inspiration in the design and production of symbolic surfaces in interior design. Natural patterns meet the ancient craftsmanship of the weave in the surface texture of Pakchoob melamine faced MDF and PB panels, giving life to original textures and unique elegance. This surface texture is able to give a touch of style to every interior, making it really perfect.

LAMINATED BOARD LAYERS

Every LAMINATED BOARD contains of 3 main layers and some industrial ingredients such as resin and formalin, wich are all combined under extreme pressure and the final result comes out.
