Pioneer In The Production &
Export Of Ceramic Sanitary Ware

Pars Ceram, the first and largest sanitary ware manufacturer in Iran, was established by Italian experts in 1967 on the southeastern outskirts of Tehran. With a strong focus on design, creativity, and quality control, the factory produces a wide range of products, including cabinet vanities, various toilet models, and bases, with an annual capacity of 14,200 tons. Committed to the slogan "quality is the key to longevity," Pars Ceram supplies both domestic and international markets, playing a significant role in the industry
